

THE FACTS ABOUT FAMILY SUPPORT

GILES COUNTY

Begun by the Division of Mental Retardation Services (now the Division of Intellectual Disabilities Services) in 1988, the Family Support program was formally established by the General Assembly in 1992. Family Support is a flexible, family-friendly program that supports Tennesseans with all types of severe disabilities to live in their own homes and communities. Family Support is a very cost-effective program that prevents many people from needing more expensive programs.

THE PEOPLE

- Family Support served 4,144 individuals statewide in FY 09
- Maximum allowable per person is $4,000 in direct aid each year. The statewide average in direct aid per person was $1,420 in FY 09
- 6,363 families were on the statewide waiting list at the end of FY 09
- 13 families were served in Giles County in FY 09
- Average of $2395.25 direct aid per family in Giles County
- 27 families were on the waiting list in Giles County at the end of FY 09

"This is the best program ever. If I did not have this support, more times than I can count we would have been homeless."

THE PROVIDERS

Family Support Services are provided in all 95 counties by private nonprofit agencies. The agencies are guided by local volunteer councils. Agencies receive a small state funding allocation to staff and operate the program. Communities often supplement state dollars with local in-kind services and supports to families.

THE FUNDING

- Statewide funding reached its highest level ($7,679,400) in FY 05 and remained at that level until January 2009, when funding was reduced to $6,665,237.
- Funding for FY 10 was further reduced to $6,364,237.
- Prior to FY 10, funding came from state general appropriations. However, all but $200,000 of funding for FY 10 will come from economic stimulus recovery funds.

"Family Support is not just a name, it is what they do. Families come first. They help us better care for our disabled family members. Disability is not the end of the world, but when you meet so many obstacles and closed doors, you can feel like giving up. You are more than a number on a case file and we are always treated with respect and dignity."
